AFFAIRS IN BROOKLYN.

JTY OFFICIALS DEFENDANTS AGAIN.

HER SUIT TO RECOVER MONEY PAID FOR ECESSIVE CELEBRATION BILLS BEGUN. other suit growing out of the action of the visors in voting to pay a bill for expenses con-I with the Columbus celebration after it had vetoed by Supervisor-at-Large Kinkel has been i in the Supreme Court. The plaintiff is R. Ross ton, a wealthy resident of the Sixth Ward, and

Gaynor is his counsel. Mr. Gaynor is counsel mas McCann, who is the plaintiff in the similar o recover $6,000 paid to H. B. Southard for the i stands. Mr. Appleton's suit is to recever the of $2,050 paid to Frederick Aldridge for decorating County Court House and the Hall of Records on er 21. The same county officials are made dents in this suit as in the previous one-namely y Auditor Keller, who approved the bill, and visors Conly, McKeown, Barry, Judge, McGuire, hue, O'Donnell, Cook, Ralph, Jenkins, Juengst, . Gangloff, Bennem, Riggs, Lookwood, French, ice, Lynam, McKane and Baisley, who voted to The complaint sets forth that Aldridge pred a bill on October 31 for the sum of $2,050 for ecoration of the Court House and Hall of Records ie Columbus celebration. No bids for the work been invited or advertised. The bill was not zed and contained no affidavit as to correctness other facts required by law, and the Auditor and rvisors had no jurisdiction to audit it. The claim for hanging flags, bunting and colors on the ding for a day or two, and the use of them only given to the county, the material being taken to by the decorator. The complaint further sets is that the claim was "false, fraudulent, illegal, essive, unjust and inequinable," and that the work e and use of the materials was not worth more a and use of the interests are not written as $500. The Anditor approved the bill and the servisors ordered it paid, and when the Supervisor-targe vetoed the resolution for its payment they grade the veto and the County Treasurer and it plaintiff seeks to have the claim declarer false, dullent, colinsive, excessive and filegal," and that a vacated and set aside, and the individual defends restore the sum of $2,050 to the county, with

STARTLING DEVELOPMENTS EXPECTED.

The December Grand Jury, George M. Nichols, foren, which has been in session since the first Monday December, will end its work to-day and be disarged. Much time has been given by the body to a investigation of the expenditure of public money the Aldermen and Supervisors for the Columbus cel-eration. City and county officials, including Mayor sody, Controller Jackson, City Auditor Weber, the mittee of aldermen in charge of the celebration. unty Auditor Keller, Supervisor-at-Large erk Cadley, of the Board of Supervisors; Clerk Cumings, of the Board of Aldermen, many of the Superisors, and all the men who put in hills for work or applies connected with the celebration, have been ned. The bills have been gone over and many inor affairs looked into. An exhaustive and comrehensive presentment will be made to Judge Moore a the Court of Sessions to-day. It is expected that a arge number of indictments will also be handed down. ind it has been reported that they would be found gainst the chief efficials of both city and county who ave had anything to do with the expenditures. Not lince the Grand Jury investigated the St. John land county Farm scandals and made a sweeping present-nert, nearly two years ago, has there been so much interest in the work of the grand inquest as at present.

THE RESIGNATIONS OF THE STAFF ASKED FOR. Owing to the refusal of Joseph Fahys, who is in Europe, to accept the presidency of the Homee skithle Hospital trustees, L. H. Arnold has been elected to the place, and Richard J. Chard has been chosen vicepresident in place of Dr. William Jarvie, who was anwilling to serve unless Mr. Tahys would act as After this action had been taken, on Wednesday evening, the trastees appointed a com-mittee composed of General John B. Woodward, Dr. William Jarvie and Lowell M. Paimer to meet the members of the medical staff, for the purpose of promoting a more harmonious spirit than has existed for some time. To this end the committee was directed request the resignations of the members of the staff, the resignations to be held by the trustees, and not to be acted upon unless in the opinion of the trustees the interests of the hospital demand such The members of the staff are Drs. Bonnell, Atwood, Moffat, Whitney, Keep, Miner, Chapin, Butler, Smith, Blackman, Valentine, Talmage, Willis, earles and Lewis. Dr. Bonnell has been connected with the hospital for a score of years, and has been the of staff for a dozen years. None of the doctors would talk about the action they would talk. This step on the part of the inistees is the outcome of the differences which grew up last year over Miss Betts, now acting superintendent of the training school for nurses, where she has succeeded Miss Camp.

HE THOUGHT HIS HOUSE WAS A SHIP. This morning the funeral of one of the best known sea captains will be held at the home of his daughter, Mrs. William Ruby, No. 192 Division ave. The day able to leave his hed thought he was at sea and imagined his house was a stip. On Wednesday morning he sent for the "crew" (his family), and after exemining what he took for char's, appointed his daughter captain, and with the words, "You'll have to take this ship to port," he died.

ANNUAL MEETING OF FLYMOUTH CHURCH. The annual meeting of the Society of Plymouth Church, which manages its business affairs, was held last evening. John Claffin, S. V. White and Thomas G. Shearman were re-elected trustees for three years. The vacancy caused by the death of Augustus was filled by the election of John Arbuckle to fill his was fined by the election of John Arbuckle to fill all inexpired term as a trustee. The trensurer's report showed receipts of $18,000 from pew rents and $10,000 from bequests. The expenditures, lucluding repairs to the organ, amounted to $27,000.

GATHERED ABOUT THE TOWN. Peter Eckel, the letter-carrier who was assaulted and stabled by a gang of Italians while a pessenger on the ferrybeat Dakots early on Tuesday morning. died vesterday in the Eastern District Hospital from the wound. In his ante-mortem statement Eckel said that the assault had been entirely usprovoked. The police have arrested the Italians, who are held to await the result of the coroner's inquest.

The funeral of Hannibal Price, Haytlan Minister to this country, was held yesterday at St. John's Roman Catholic Chapel, in Clermont-ave. The Rev. James Mitchell celebrated the requiem mass. The body was embalmed and placed in a receiving vanit in Greenwood. It will be taket to Hayti in the spring.

The cold weather has increased the consumption of water, and the reserve in the distributing reservoirs is reduced to seven feet, of which only three feet can be drawn off, on account of air entering the pipes. The repairs to the broken pumping engine will be completed this week, and then a full supply will be again assured, if no other accident occurs.

On behalf of a syndicate of capitalists, Fell's Campbell, president of the People's Trust Company, has offered 151 for the stock of the Metropolitan Gas Company, and an offer of 155 for the same has been made by C. E. Staples & Co. on behalf of J. Edward Addicks, of the Brooklyn Company. Refore receiving the latter offer the directors of the company had recommended to the stockholders the acceptance of the liberal offer of Mr. Campbell. It is believed that the Addicks offer has been made to prevent the syndicate from securing control.

Miss Ellen Garahan, for over forty years an instructor in the Pucter Institute, died on Wednesday, she had been a teacher in one of the public scheeds of the city before she entered the institute in 1852. She had charge of the preparatory department for a term of years, and afterward was instructor in pen-manship. Her death was due to consumption, after an iliness of several months.
